

Community mural creation
'Engaging Economies of Change' Conference
Canadian Society for Ecological Economics
Waterloo, May 2019

WELLESLEY

Natziger Road - Reimagined

Original

Natziger Road

From 50by30WR
Visioning Event:
“What Could It Be? Imagining
a Just, Green Waterloo Region
by 2030”

www.50by30wr.ca/event-bridge-50x30

RISE UP

PROTECT The Grand River

SAVE OUR FUTURE

Stand with us

#Laurier Climate Action

Photo by Tomasz Adamski
Mural artist Pamela Rojas

'Images of possibility'

Photo by Kai Reimer-Watts

Photo by Tomasz Adamski

'Climate is Life'
mural in-progress,
September 2019

Wilfrid Laurier University
Waterloo, Canada

Discussed in:

Trott, C. D., Reimer-Watts, K., & Riemer, M. (2022). In pursuit of a practical utopia: Transitioning towards climate justice. In C. Kagan, R. Lawthom, M. Richards, J. Alfaro, A. Zambrano, & J. Akhurst (Eds.), International handbook of community psychology: Facing global crises with hope. Taylor & Francis.

50x30WR, a group of organizers operating on the principle that speed is justice and committing to a goal of 50% emissions reductions by 2030, to keep climate warming to under 1.5C

Artist: Abhilasha Dewan

“The radical is the realistic”

Climate justice is the logical response to the climate crisis

CJ requires transformative change

CP practitioners integral to facilitating transformation

Developing collective radical imagination through visioning alternatives with our communities can be a good place to start

Discussed in:

Trott, C. D., Reimer-Watts, K., & Riemer, M. (2022). In pursuit of a practical utopia: Transitioning towards climate justice. In C. Kagan, R. Lawthorn, M. Richards, J. Alfaro, A. Zambrano, & J. Akhurst (Eds.), International handbook of community psychology: Facing global crises with hope. Taylor & Francis.

'Build the Future' mural in Waterloo, 2019
Used with permission